Fulton Lewis, Jr. lauds Timken's Creed

Mr. Fulton Lewis, Jr., nationally known radio commentator, addressed the student body of Timken Vocational High School.

It is customary at important assemblies for the students to rise and recite the Creed. Upon hearing the recitation of the school Creed, Mr. Lewis was so impressed by the beauty of it that he congratulated the school for such a splendid accomplishment. On his nation-wide broadcast that evening, Mr. Lewis read the Creed over the air and explained that it had been written by the students.

Then the mail began to pour in! Many people asked for copies so that they might reprint or present the Creed before special groups. These complimentary comments from listeners all over the country gave us, ourselves, a new appreciation of the Creed.

The Creed of Timken Vocational High School

I pledge to develop a deeper appreciation of myself, my school, my country, and my Creator.

I believe in myself. I must have the confidence to pursue successfully my vocation and to attain my goal in life.

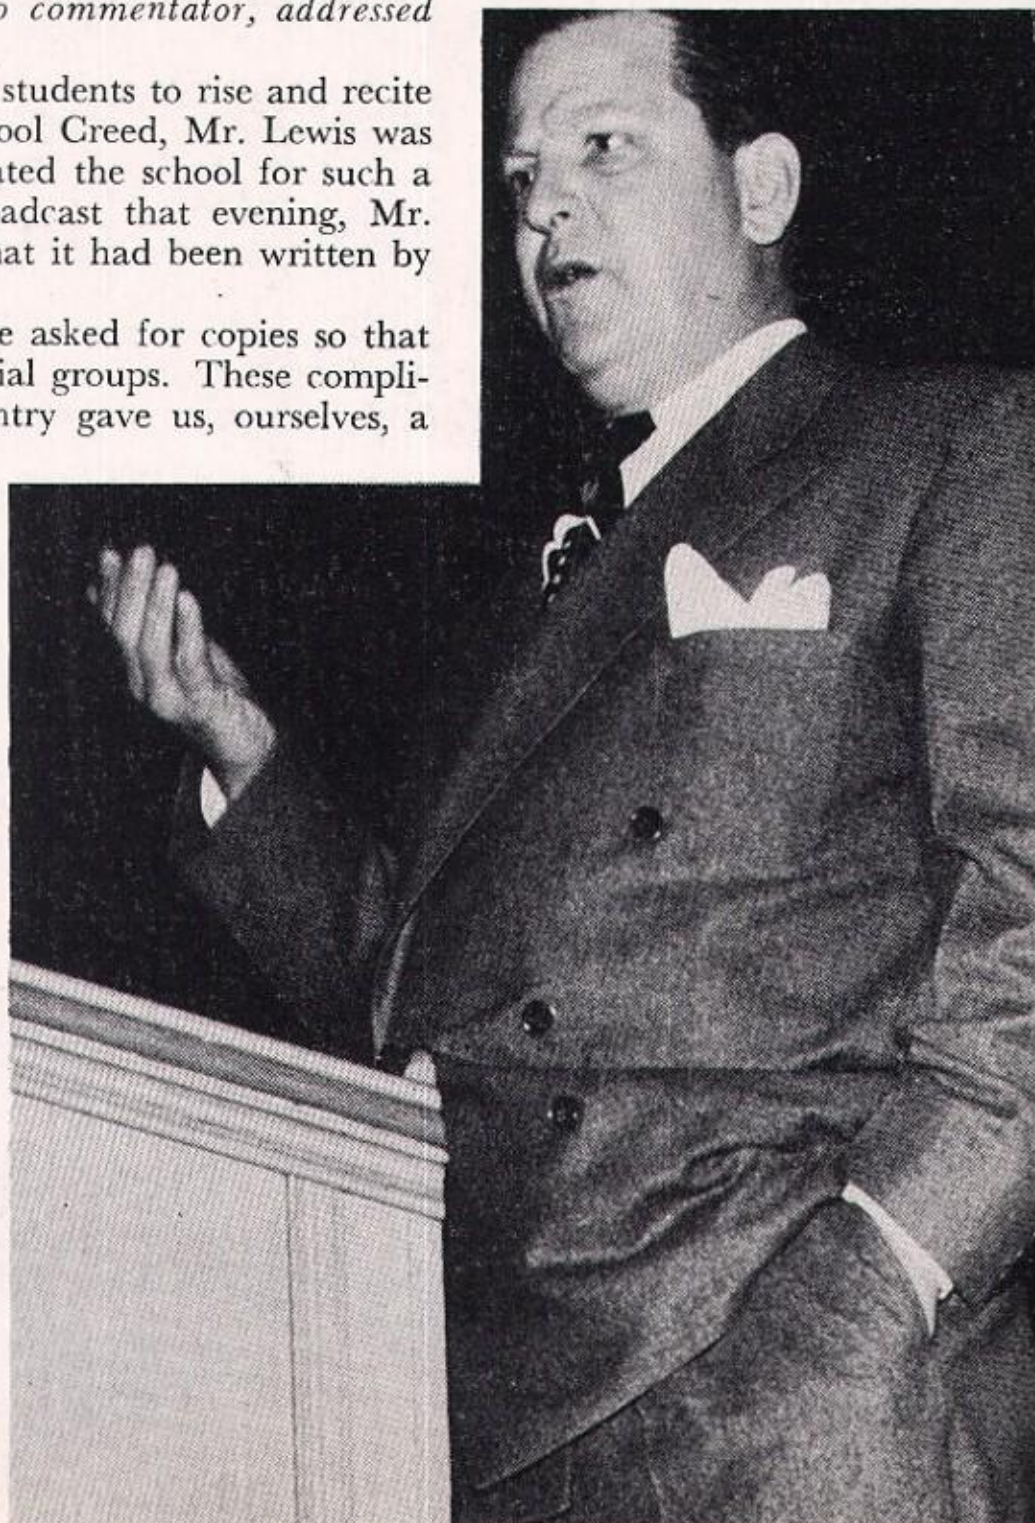

I believe in my school. It provides the opportunity to acquire the skills of my vocation, the knowledge to earn my living, and the culture to teach me how to live.

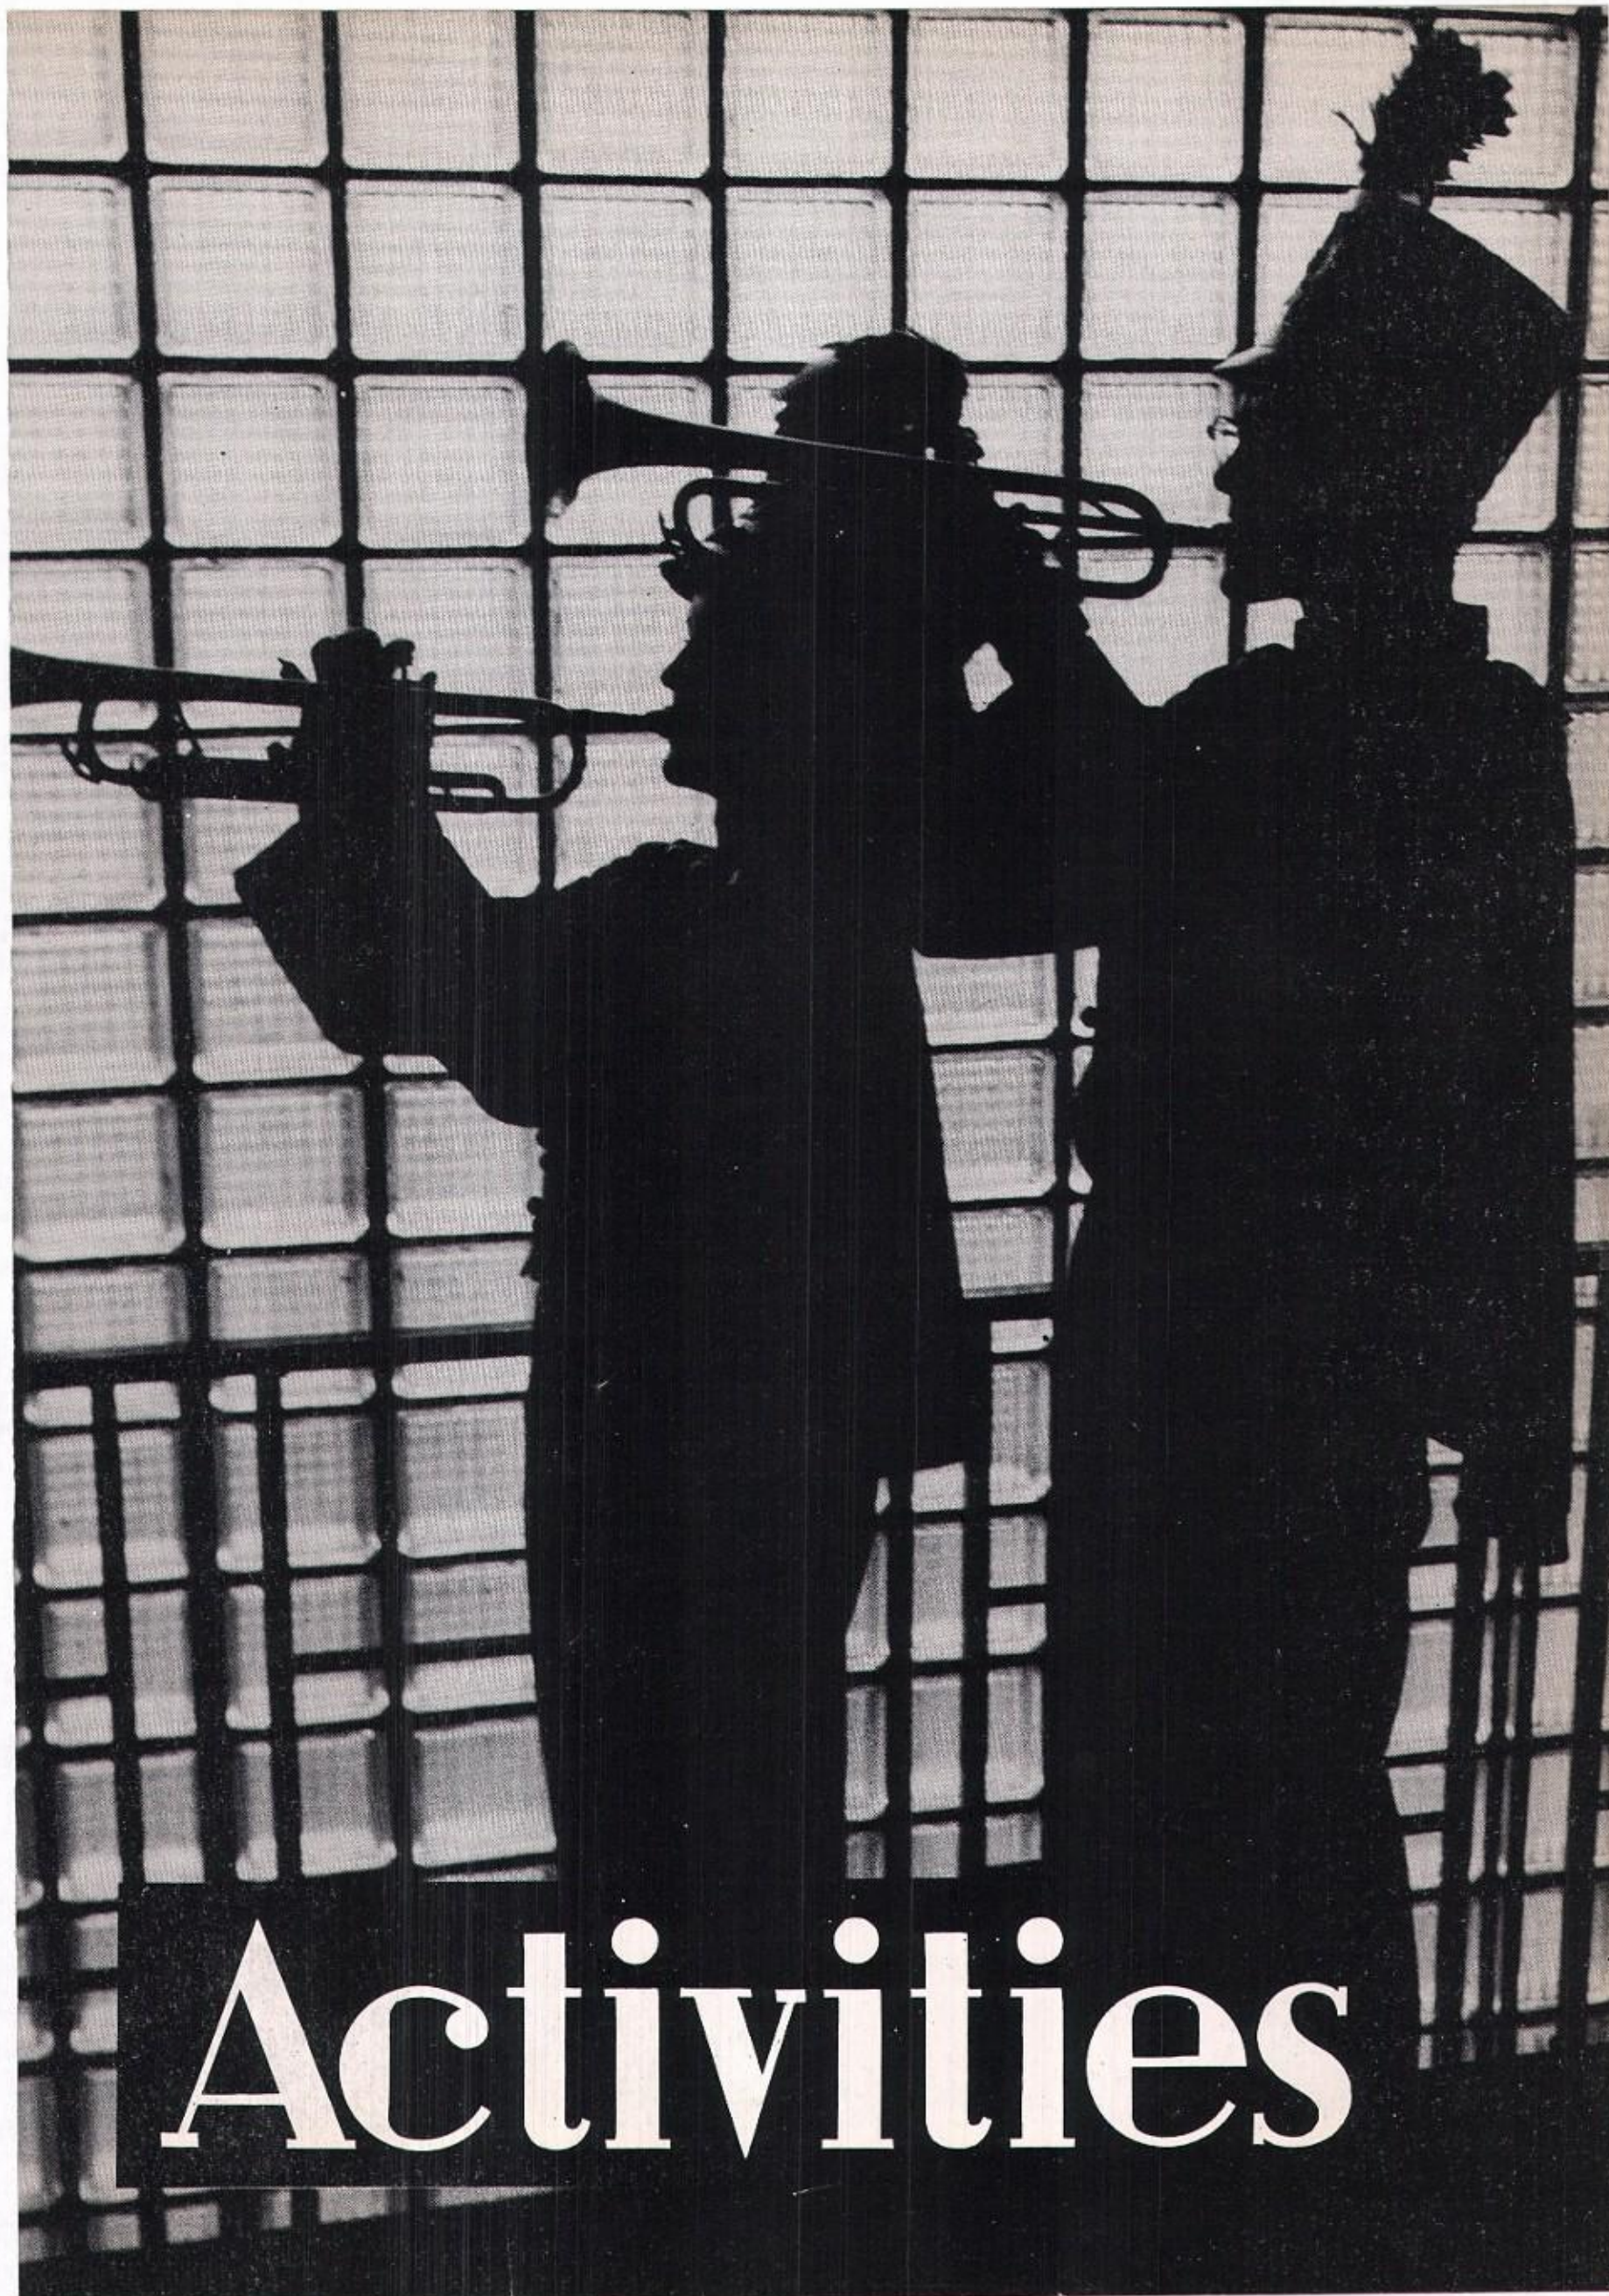

I believe in my country. America has made available to man the world's greatest bulwark of freedom. I pledge to keep it so.

I believe in a Supreme Being. Life's gifts and privileges are ultimately derived from God. Without faith I will perish.

I pledge to uphold these ideals. I will respect myself and obey the regulations of my school, the laws of my country, and the commandments of my Creator.

This is my creed.

Varsity Football

Lincoln 0 — Timken 0

In the initial encounter of the '51 season, careless ball handling on the part of both squads prevented any scoring as the teams fought to a scoreless deadlock.

Ashtabula 7 — Timken 7

The Panthers put on a desperate aerial attack in the fourth quarter to hold the Timkenites to a 7 - 7 stalemate. Timken scored its touchdown in the opening minutes of the game in the person of Clyde Wernecke, with Rambaud dashing over for the extra point.

McKinley 13 — Timken 19

After 11 years of hope for victory over the Bulldogs, a spirited Trojan squad set down the staggering Bulldogs, 19-13. John Hiben, in his initial assignment, passed 9 complete tosses out of 15 attempts to lead the Trojans to victory. Ben Rambaud's running in this game was commendable.

New Philadelphia 12 — Timken 18

In scoring one T D in the 1st quarter and 2 in the third, the Trojans resorted to defense and defeated the New Philly Quakers. The losers scored six-pointers in the 1st and 3rd quarters.

Girard 12 — Timken 6

The Trojans literally pushed the Indians all over Fawcett Stadium but lacked scoring punch as Timken bowed before the Girard eleven, 12-6.

Salem 25 — Timken 20

Allowing the Quakers a 25-7 third period margin, the Timkenites fought desperately to come from behind, but fell short of a 25-20 verdict. John Hiben completed 15 of 30 passes. The outstanding play of the game was a 99-yard run by Salem's Nelson Mellinger in the third period.

Lehman 14 — Timken 7

In the battle for the city championship, the Trojans lost to the Hilltoppers in a very tactful game. The winners scored in the second and third quarters while Timken scored its lone tally in the fourth period.

East Liverpool 21 — Timken 13

In the game that climaxed the football season for 1951, the Vocationalists were handed a 21-13 reversal by a strong and spirited Liverpool eleven. The Potters scored twice in the second period and once in the third, while the Troymen scored single 6-pointers in each of the last 2 quarters.

Variety in School Life

ADMINISTRATORS

ROBERT E. WILSON
Assistant Superintendent of Schools

Dr. Eibling is ably assisted by Dr. Robert Wilson, who is, in his first year as assistant-superintendent of schools, performing his duties in a capable and friendly manner.

HAROLD H. EIBLING
Superintendent of Canton Schools

Dr. Harold Eibling is enthusiastic about his work as Superintendent of the Canton Public Schools "because of the challenge that comes from working with young people."

He believes that the future of the citizens in tomorrow's world depends upon the educational program of today.

During the past two years, Dr. Eibling has placed great emphasis upon an extensive and informative public relations program. To further a keen understanding in the work of the public schools many publications have been issued to parents and teachers under the direction of Dr. Eibling.

Dr. Eibling likes living and working in Canton because of its friendly spirit and its great interest in education.

Principal

HALBERT E. WHITE
Principal

After four years as principal of Timken Vocational High School, Mr. White is known as a congenial and understanding administrator, who has a firm belief in good discipline. He spends time and energy speaking with and advising his many student-friends. Mr. White's enthusiasm for all school functions has placed Timken in the fore-ground.
